MARYVILLE COLLEGE,

MARYVILLE,—EAST TENNESSEE.

Rev. T. J. LAMAR, Department of Languages.

Rev. P. M. BARTLETT, Department of Mathematics.

This Institution will be re-opened on the first Wednesday of September next.

Necessary Expenses, including Tuition, Board, Washing, Fuel Lights and incidentals, need not exceed $50 per Session of five months.

The Boarding-House will be given up to the Students, who can club together, hire a cook, and furnish their own provisions.

While it shall be our high and constant purpose to impart a solid and useful education to Students, great care will also be given to their moral and religious culture.

To young men wishing to study for the ministry, MARYVILLE COLLEGE offers special facilities.

Letters of inquiry promptly answered.

By order of the Board,

R. E. TEDFORD,

MARYVILLE, July 4th, 1866. Recorder.

☞ It is hoped that the President elect will be ready to enter upon his duties in September next. The friends of the Institution, at the earliest practicable period, wish to provide a full and efficient Faculty, and all the facilities for a thorough education.

New and valuable books will be added each session to the Society and College Libraries.

Rev. Samuel Sawyer is appointed agent to procure an addition to the College endowment.

EXPENSES, PER SESSION OF FIVE MONTHS.

Tuition	$10.00
Room Rent	1.00
Incidentals	1.00
Fuel, Lights, and Washing	10.00
Board, in companies, ($1.50 per week)	30.00

Tuition must be paid by the middle of the session.

Room Rent and Incidental Tax must be paid in advance.

A Record is kept, by the Faculty, of the attainments of every student, and also of his delinquencies. Information concerning his proficiency and deportment is, when requested, communicated to the parent or guardian.

No student who does not maintain a good moral character, and punctually attend to all the requirements of the school, will be allowed to remain a member of the Institution.

All students are required to attend church regularly on the Sabbath; and to observe faithfully the hours appointed for study.
